

Search The Daily Record

HOME | NEWS | SPORT | OPINION | BINGO | SHOWBIZ | DATING | MOTORING | SITEMAP

Daily Record  NEWS

MESSAGEBOARDS

 News RSS Feed

\(what's this?\)

BUSINESS INSIDER

42 LOSE JOBS IN TEXTILE CLOSURE

FORTY-TWO knitwear workers have lost their jobs after the crash of a famous textile firm.

£100M ONLINE SALES BOOM FOR JOHN LEWIS

DEPARTMENT store John Lewis racked up sales of more than £100million in their online and catalogue business this year.

DESIGNER WEB FEAT

BUDDING entrepreneur Martin MacRae has won cash backing to start a web design company for small businesses.

Record  OPINION

Record  COLUMNISTS

Search News

e.g. Tony Blair

Today's weather

• Glasgow: Cloudy 9°C

Click here for more weather

Advertisement

23 December 2005

NAVY BLUES

A US navy chaplain is on hunger strike outside the White House - after military bosses banned him using the word "Jesus".

Lt Gordon Klingenschmitt believes navy chiefs plan to discharge him for refusing to drop Christian-specific language from his public comments. He has filed a lawsuit to keep his post.

He said: "They praise you if you pray just to God. But if you pray in Jesus's name, they counsel you."

The Navy said rules did not limit what chaplains could say at religious ceremonies but specify at other events they should "focus on practices faiths have in common

 Print article  Email to a friend

MONEY | CHRISTMAS | JOBS | LEISURE GUIDE | FUN & GAMES | TRAVEL | WEATHER | RSS FEEDS | CONTACT US

Home | NEWS | SPORT | OPINION | BINGO | SHOWBIZ | DATING | MOTORING | SITEMAP | MONEY | CHRISTMAS | JOBS | LEISURE GUIDE | FUN & GAMES | TRAVEL | WEATHER | RSS FEEDS | CONTACT US | LIFESTYLE | SHOPPING AND SERVICES